Membership Classes, Subscriptions and Entry Fees

There are the following classes and types of membership.

Full Membership (for sailing Members)

- (a) Family Membership, which covers Husband and Wife or Partners and their children up to the age of 18.
- (b) Single Membership.
- (c) Junior Membership, which is payable by members under the age of 18 not otherwise covered by Family Membership. Juniors attaining the age of 18 years will pay a full single membership subscription for the year following their 18th birthday.
- (d) Student Membership, which is payable by members not otherwise covered by Family Membership who are undertaking a further education course at a recognised further education establishment, or are apprenticed, and not in full time paid employment

Associate Membership (for non-sailing Members)

Associate Members will be entitled to the rights and privileges under the Club Rules EXCEPT:

- (i) those Rules, Byelaws, and Regulations restricted to sailing matters.
- (ii) the right to vote, and
- (iii) they will not be eligible for election to Office or service on the General Management Committee though they may be co-opted to Sub-Committees at the discretion of the Committee.
- (iv) they will not be eligible to store boats and/or sailing equipment on the club premises or to use club boats and/or sailing equipment, however they may sail as crew with members on members' boats

The types of Associate Membership shall be:

- (i) Husband and Wife only.
- (ii) Single Members over the age of 18 years.

The rates of subscription for Associate Membership shall be one half of the appropriate Full Membership Subscription unless otherwise determined by the General Management Committee.

Entry Fees

Entry fees shall be payable by all new Members admitted to the Club at a rate to be fixed by the General Management Committee – currently (2010) set at zero.

Payment of entry fee and/or subscription with this application fee does not constitute acceptance to the club membership.

Applicants will be invited to meet with the General Management Committee to aid consideration of their application and may then be accepted to the membership at the discretion of that committee.

Membership Subscriptions (2010 – reviewed annually)

Sailing :	Family	£170	Non-sailing:	Associate	£45
	Single	£155
	Junior / Student	£32

Club Rules and Sailing Instructions

All members, of any class or type, shall receive a copy of the club rules, club byelaws and club sailing instructions on acceptance to the club membership roll.

Compliance with these rules, byelaws and instructions, as amended from time to time, is a requirement for continuing membership of the club. In making application to join the membership applicants and, where applicable, their family members are deemed to have accepted this requirement.
